Confirmation preparation

If you would like to consider preparing for confirmation, (or baptism and confirmation), with a view to being confirmed by the Bishop of Hertford in the Abbey on Saturday 29th May, please could you pass your name, age and contact details to the vicar, Anne Hollinghurst. (An adults group will also be offered for any who are interested). You are also welcome to sign up for the group if you would like an opportunity to explore the Christian faith further, but do not want to commit yourself to confirmation at this stage.

‘Dare to make a difference’ The Bishop’s Lent Challenge

Please take a flyer/information about Bishop Alan’s Lent challenge, available at the south and west doors, further resources are available from the Diocesan website.

Lent Course and Quiet Evening

A course written by Bishops Alan, Chris and Richard will take place on Mondays throughout Lent in the parish library, 8pm, led by the Vicar and others.

A quiet evening for the start of Lent will be led by Godfrey Lloyd on Monday 22 February, in the library, starting at 7.45pm. This will end with Compline.

Lent Mid-week Eucharist

There will be a quiet, said mid-week Eucharist in Church at 1pm on Tuesdays throughout Lent, beginning on Tuesday 23 February, incorporating reflection and meditation from the Bishops’ Lent course.

Morning Prayer

Each Monday to Thursday, Morning Prayer is now said in the Lady Chapel at 8.45-9.10am. You are welcome to come along on an occasional or regular basis. Common Worship ‘Daily Prayer’ offers a seasonal framework for prayer, encompassing scripture readings and psalms, short intercessions, and space for personal reflection and meditation.

Parish Ramble

The next parish ramble will take place on Sunday 14 February. Meet in the church car park at 2pm.
