

Greater Love

Remembrance Events
St Peter's Church, St Albans
10 November 2018

11am – 4pm

11am – 4pm      Remembrance Trail

Prayers said every 30 minutes as visitors are invited to walk the Remembrance Trail. The trail will highlight the WWI memorials of the church as well as the names of the fallen of the parish and worshipping community of St Peter's.

3pm – 4pm    Public Memorialisation of the Dead in St Albans, 1914 – 1925

Talk by Jonathan Mein, local historian and editor of the WWI book: St Albans, Life on the Home Front 1914 – 1918, charting the development of the tradition of public commemoration in St Albans from the Boer War through the Great War itself and finishing in 1925.

For more information on Remembrance Day events please visit the St Albans Remembers webpage

<http://www.enjoystalbans.com/whats-on/Remembrance/index.html>

St Peter's Church, St Peter's Street, St Albans, Herts AL1 3HG
01727 855485    www.stpeterschurch.uk.com